Organization’s Mission Statement:

Mission
To improve quality of life by making nonprofits more successful.

Vision
To build the country’s highest performing state-focused resource center, and to position Georgia as a national model for nonprofit excellence and achievement.

Summary of organization’s primary programs and services:
For 20 years, The Georgia Center for Nonprofits has served as a cornerstone of support for the Georgia nonprofit and philanthropic community by delivering a wide range of services and support. Today, GCN offers more ways than ever to help our member organizations meet their missions and maximize their impact. Members depend on GCN’s landmark research studies, monthly publications, and timely briefings to provide them with insight and direction. GCN member- exclusive events prove the power of the network in building partnerships, collaborations and sharing knowledge. Innovative year round programming through GCN’s Nonprofit University develops leadership skills. Our expert consultants develop strategies and build capacity for organizations of all sizes, enabling them to accelerate and grow their impact. And our Marketplace buying consortium helps trim organizational expenses. Our members span the nonprofit world in scale and scope—from international organizations to corporate philanthropies, foundations, and community initiatives. Together, we magnify our impact in powerful ways—supporting each other in our shared vision to improve the quality of life in our community and our state.
