Servant Leadership Summer Environmental Internships 2011

Looking to make a difference this summer?

Do you want to address new challenges and develop new skills?

Do you desire to expand your horizons?

And do you want to do all of these while getting paid?

If so, then you should apply to become part of Environmental Servant Leadership Summer. The Ethics and Servant Leadership Program of the Center for Ethics is now accepting applications for the 2011 Servant Leadership Summer Environmental Internships.

What:
- Funded internships for the summer. Program runs from May 16-July 15, 2011.
- Interns work 240 hours during the internship period. (Generally it is expected students will work 30 hours a week for 8 weeks.)
- Interns attend class from 9:00-1:00 on Fridays, lunch included.
- $4000 stipend.

Who:
- All full-time Emory University students (including students at Oxford College) are eligible for the program.
- Undergraduate, graduate, and professional students are encouraged to apply (including students graduating in May 2011). (Special consideration will be given to Environmental Studies majors.)

Where:
- Any Atlanta-area environmental or sustainability – focused nonprofit including:
  - Trees Atlanta
  - Park Pride
  - DHS Community Garden
  - Grant Park Conservancy

Apply now: Applications are due no later than 5:00 p.m. on Friday, March 4, 2011. Students will be informed of their acceptance no later than March 18. For application materials or more information go to: www.ethics.emory.edu, or contact Chantel Smith, EASL: chantel.lashay.smith@emory.edu
