Servant Leadership Summer Internships 2020

Looking to make a difference this summer?

Do you want to face new challenges and develop new skills?

Do you desire to expand your horizons?

And do you want to do all of these while getting paid?

If so, then you should apply to become part of Servant Leader Summer Internship Program.

The Ethics and Servant Leadership Program of the Center for Ethics is now accepting applications for the 2020 Servant Leader Summer Internship Program.

What:

• Up to thirty funded summer internships for the summer. Program runs from May 18-July 31.
• Interns work a minimum of 270 hours during the internship period.
• Interns attend class from 9:00-1:00 on Fridays, lunch included.
• Interns receive a stipend of $2000 to $4000.
• Applications due March 2, 2020 by 4:00 p.m.

Who:

All full-time Emory University students (including students at Oxford College) are eligible for the program. Undergraduate, graduate, and professional students are encouraged to apply (including students graduating in May 2020).

Several internships are designed expressly for graduate and professional students.

Where: Atlanta-area nonprofit organizations, governmental agencies, and socially responsible businesses.

Program runs from May 18 through July 31.

More information including list of placement sites and application form available at: http://www.ethics.emory.edu/pillars/citizenship/EASL/Summer_Internships.html or contact Ms. Kristina Johnson, krjohn9@emory.edu

What they are saying about the Servant Leader Summer Internship Program:

• Through the EASL Summer Internship Program, I was able to explore and identify leadership positions and opportunities to which I would have otherwise never been exposed. KP
• This is awesome! EASL is such a great program! The best program I have been a part of at Emory . . .. LH
• [It] played a huge part in my Emory experience and I hope that the program continues to grow and influence the lives of others. MF

- I learned to be leader--a servant-leader. It was a challenging placement, but rewarding and valuable to my personal growth. RE