

Servant Leadership Summer
Environmental Internships 2009
Deadline Extended

Looking to make a difference this summer?

Do you want to address new challenges and develop new skills?

Do you desire to expand your horizons?

Do you want to work on environmental and sustainability issues?

And do you want to do all of these while getting paid?

If so, then you should apply to become part of Servant Leadership Summer
Environmental Internships.

The Ethics and Servant Leadership Program of the Center for Ethics is now accepting applications for the 2009 Servant Leadership Summer Environmental Internships.

What:

Up to four (4) funded internships for the summer. Program runs from May 19-July 10.

Interns work 240 hours during the internship period. (Generally it is expected students will work 30 hours a week for 8 weeks.)

Interns attend class from 9:00-1:00 on Fridays, lunch included.

Interns receive a $4000 stipend.

Who:

All full-time Emory University students (including students at Oxford College) are eligible for the program. Undergraduate, graduate, and professional students are encouraged to apply (including students graduating in May 2009). (Special consideration will be given to Environmental Studies majors.)

Where: Any Atlanta-area environmental or sustainability –focused nonprofits.

Apply now: Applications are due no later than 5:00 p.m. on March 27, 2009.

Students will be informed of their acceptance the following week.

For more information contact Tracy Yandle, Environmental Studies tyandle@emory.edu